

Nomination Form – Silviculturist of the Year Award 2025

The Coastal Silviculture Committee's (CSC) Silviculturist of the Year Award annually recognizes a member of the forestry community who has demonstrated commitment to furthering the field of silviculture.

Recipients of the Award possess qualities from each of the four core values detailed below:

- Knowledge
- Innovation
- Respect
- Dedication

Any successful Nominee should be able to clearly identify qualities in all four categories. The points below are suggestions only.

Knowledge

The Nominee has made significant contributions in the advancement of silviculture practices in knowledge or research. Such as:

- Development of best management practices, discussion papers or published research specific to silviculture practices
- Mentoring or teaching of silvicultural practices through workshop delivery
- Years of working in a silviculture-specific position

Innovation

The Nominee has contributed to the creation of new ideas, processes, or guidelines to improve silvicultural practices. Such as:

- Silviculture innovations initiated or lead by the nominee
- Establishing formal or informal research trials

Respect

The Nominee has earned respect from the silviculture community through participation in CSC Workshops and other conferences or professional development initiatives. Such as:

- Presenting at past CSC Workshops
- Presenting at professional events (AGMs, workshops, etc.) on silviculture-related topics
- Teaching (or guest lecturer) at a college or university
- Award recipient from other organizations (ie. ABCFP, CIF)

Dedication

The Nominee demonstrates dedication to the sharing of knowledge, and promotion of sound silviculture practices. Such as:

- Currently or previously serving with the CSC or other organizations who promote continuing education (ie. ABCFP, CIF, other Silviculture groups in or out of Province)
- Currently or previously a mentor/sponsor for an ABCFP candidate
- Recipient of Professional Development Certificate from the ABCFP

Please consider the four core values, and provide the following to the President of the CSC ahead of the deadline indicated below:

- A letter of nomination
- At least one (1) letter of reference

Deadline for submission: May 1, 2025

Submit to: Craig Wickland, President CSC (Craig.wickland@gov.bc.ca)
